- (B) The Seller is the owner or licensee of the Seller’s Trademarks (as this term is defined in Definitions and Interpretation section).
- (C) The Buyer is engaged in the business of marketing and/or production and/or distribution of medicines for human use within the Territory.

NOW THEREFORE the Parties hereby agree as follows.

DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION

Unless the context requires otherwise, capitalized words and expressions used in this Agreement (including the Recitals) shall have the following meanings:

“Adverse Event” shall mean any observation in humans, whether or not considered to be product-related, that is unfavorable and unintended and that occurs after any use of a Product (on-label use only). Included are events related to noxious reactions in humans after being exposed to a Product, violations of approved residue limits, potential environmental problems and transmission of any infectious agent via a Product, as well as any other reactions, specified by law on medicines in Territory.

“Commercialization” or “Commercialize” means any and all activities that relate to labeling, marketing, promoting, distributing, importing, selling, offering for sale, having sold, or use of the Products. For the avoidance of doubt, all activities related to manufacturing of the Products are not included into this definition.

“Marketing Authorisations” means authorisations to place the Products on the market in the Territory in accordance with the applicable laws to be granted by any Regulatory Authority.

“Marketing Authorization Holder” shall mean the Party who holds the Marketing Authorization of a Product in the Territory.

“Products” means vectored Covid-19 vaccines (“Sputnik Light”), consisting out of one recombinant adenovirus component rAd26-S, according to the Schedule 1 of this Agreement. For the first time worldwide the Product has been introduced into civil circulation in the territory of the Russian Federation (marketing authorization issued by the Ministry of Health of the Russian Federation No. LP-006993 of May 06, 2021). The Parties hereby acknowledge and agree that for the purpose of registration of the Product in the Territory compound and other certain aspects of the Product may be subject to change.

“Seller’s Trademarks” means “Sputnik Light” ((trademark certificate No. 804739, registered by Russian Patent Agency (Rospatent)), or any other registered trademark related to the Product, held by the Seller, or pending applications in accordance national jurisdictions legislation or in accordance with Madrid Treaty Concerning the International Registration of Marks of April 14, 1891, or preparations for filling in the corresponding national jurisdictions.

“State Authority” means any public authority, including regulatory authorities, registration, antitrust, customs or other legislative, executive and judicial authority (including their territorial departments and offices and subordinate organizations), other persons acting on behalf of the mentioned authorities as well as any judicial authority or local self-government authorities having necessary public powers and competent jurisdiction in the relevant regulatory scope of matters in accordance with applicable law.

“Territory” means Republic of Armenia.

1. SUPPLY OF THE PRODUCTS

Framework arrangements

- 1.1. This Agreement determines the general terms and conditions of the legally binding relationship between the Seller and the Buyer arising out of, and in connection with, the supply of the Products by the Seller to the Buyer.
- 1.2. Hereby the Seller appoints the Buyer to be the non-exclusive distributor of the Product within the Territory.
- 1.3. The Buyer undertakes to exercise control over the parallel import cases of the Product: a) arising out of the unauthorised supplies by the third party out of the Territory, b) arising out of the unauthorised supplies to the Territory, including by means of establishing corresponding clauses in the agreements with third parties, monitoring the supply chain of the Products, providing legal remedies in parallel import cases in close coordination with the Seller. For the purpose of this clause “unauthorized supplies” means those supplies which have not been specifically authorized by the Seller in writing.
- 1.4. The Buyer is authorized to sell the Products to third parties only under the “Sputnik Light” trademark. If the use of the “Sputnik Light” trademark due to local specifics is impossible, the Parties undertake to mutually agree in writing on a different trademark of the Product to be used in the Territory.

- 1.5. The Buyer undertakes to exercise its best efforts in Commercialization of the Product in the Territory.

Formation of the Specifications

- 1.6. The Seller at any time during the term of validity (as defined in clause 10.2.) may send to the Buyer a notice of readiness to shipment (the “Notice of Readiness”) together with a specification (the “Specification”) in the forms set out in Schedule 1.
- 1.7. The Buyer that has received the Specification from the Seller in accordance with clause 1.6 shall consider it within five (5) Business Days from the time of delivery of the Specification.
- 1.8. The Buyer represented by one of the Buyer’s authorised representatives shall send to the Seller by e-mail at the corporate e-mail address of the respective Seller’s authorised representatives within the term specified in a clause 1.7. above:
- (a) the Specification, agreed in full and duly signed by one of the authorised representatives of the Buyer (in PDF format), with the Buyer’s seal affixed (if applicable), or
 - (b) a notice that the Buyer reasonably objects to the Specification received from the Seller in case the Buyer has any objections.
- 1.9. In case the Buyer has any reasonable objections specified in clause 1.8 (b), the Seller and the Buyer will make best efforts to settle outstanding terms and conditions and reach an agreement with regard to the related Specification in dispute within five (5) Business Days from the date of receipt of the notice. In case the Buyer has no reasonable objections specified in clause 1.8 (b), but has not sent to the Seller the Specification agreed and signed by the Buyer in accordance with a clause 1.8 (a) above within the term specified in a clause 1.7. above, the Specification is considered to be approved by the Parties from the date of expiration of the term specified in a clause 1.7 above.

2. TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE SPECIFICATIONS

- 2.1. Subject to the provisions of section 1, the Seller in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Specification and terms set out in this Agreement shall (acting as the seller of the Products) transfer into the Buyer’s ownership the Products in question, and the Buyer (acting as the purchaser of the Products) shall accept such Products and pay to the Seller a certain agreed amount (price) for the Products as set out in this Agreement and the relevant Specification.
- 2.2. All the Products, supplied by the Seller in accordance with this Agreement, shall be supplied and transferred by the Seller on the self-collection delivery basis at the destination point specified in the Specification (the “Place of Dispatch”) or at the other place as may be additionally agreed by the Parties in writing (including via e-mail at the corporate e-mail addresses of the respective Buyer’s and Seller’s authorised representatives).
- 2.3. For the avoidance of any doubt and without prejudice to the above the Parties confirm the following:
- (a) The moment of delivery of the Products is when the Products are accepted by the Buyer at the Place of Dispatch in accordance with clause 1 (a) of the Schedule 2 or when the Products are delivered at the Place of Dispatch to the first carrier in cases specified in clause 2.3. (b) of this Agreement (“Moment of Delivery”). The Seller has fulfilled its obligation and the risk or liability for the Products unless otherwise provided by this Agreement as well as the title to the Products are transferred from the Seller to the Buyer from the Moment of Delivery unless otherwise specified by this Agreement.

- (b) The Buyer bears all costs for storage and transportation of the Products. The Seller may on behalf of, at the expense and in the interests of the Buyer organize delivery of Products to the place additionally agreed by the Parties as specified in clause 2.2. For the avoidance of doubt that additional place shall not change the Place of Dispatch. Such costs shall be compensated by the Buyer. In this case the risk or liability for the Products are transferred to the Buyer since the time of the delivery of goods at the Place of Dispatch to the first carrier.

For the avoidance of doubt, the first carrier hired by the Seller shall be appointed by the Buyer to perform acceptance of the Products at the Place of Dispatch.

The Buyer shall issue all respective power of attorneys or otherwise provide representative powers for the purposes of acceptance of the Products.

- (c) The storage and transportation of the Products shall be made in accordance with requirements specified in Schedule 3. The Buyer is responsible for transportation of the Products and everything else necessary to get the Products to the final destination from the Moment of Delivery.
- (d) The Buyer shall provide the Seller with access to temperature data loggers during the period of transportation of the Products to the final destination, and storage, and usage of the Products by the healthcare organizations (if relevant) of the Products. The Buyer shall ensure that the Seller has the aforesaid access.
- (e) The Buyer covenants that it will perform all the required storage and transportation requirements set out in Schedule 3. Each quality case shall be reported by the Buyer to the Seller and carefully investigated, taking into account the thermolability of the Product and applicable cold chain in the Territory.

2.4. The Parties have agreed that the Products shall be supplied within a term specified in the relevant Specification. The Seller shall not be liable for any delay in supply of the Products if such delay is caused by interruption of production or lack of Products due to low production level at the respective production facilities. All terms of supply shall be extended until the sufficient production level is restored.

2.5. The Parties have agreed that the supply of the Products is subject to the approval of the Product marketing by the State Authorities of the Territory (permanent marketing authorizations, emergency use authorization, 'ad hoc' authorization, etc.) and the Product can only be supplied after receipt of the relevant authorization.

2.6. The price of the Products is indicated below and shall be paid in RUB:

№	Type	Quantity	Price (RUB)

1.	One component COVID-19 vaccine (Sputnik Light)	25,000 (twenty five thousand) doses	RUB 450. Per one dose
----	--	--	------------------------------

- 2.7. The Buyer and the Seller hereby agree that the Buyer is obliged to purchase the Products in the quantity of 25,000 (twenty five thousand) doses of Sputnik Light (the “Committed Quantity”). The purchase of the Committed Quantity is a “take or pay” obligation on the part of the Buyer such that Buyer is absolutely and irrevocably required to accept and pay for the Committed Quantity over the period at the price set forth in clause 2.6. In the event that Buyer fails to order the Committed Quantity, the Buyer is obliged to pay 100% of the total unfulfilled committed amount.
- 2.8. The Buyer shall pay 50% of the full price for the Committed Quantity before the first shipping of the Products. The Parties have agreed that the payment of 50% of the Committed Quantity is the advance payment for the supply of 50% of the Committed Quantity and shall be made by transferring monetary funds to the Seller’s bank account at the details set out in clause 11.2 within five (5) Business Days from the date of receipt by the Buyer of the first Notice of Readiness from the Seller. The Parties hereby agree that no supply can be made under respective Specifications unless the Buyer executes the advance payment. The remaining part of the purchase price (50%) for the Committed Quantity shall be paid as follows: 50% of the purchase price of the respective supply of the Products shall be paid within 5 (five) Business Days from the date of receipt of the respective Products supplies under the respective Specification. For the avoidance of doubt the remaining part of the purchase price for the last Product supply (the balance between the purchase price of 100% of the Committed Quantity and the advance payment of 50% of the full price for the Committed Quantity and payments in the amount of 50% of the purchase price of the respective supplies of Products) shall be paid within 5 (five) Business Days from the date of receipt of the last Products supply.

The amount of the received advance payment is credited to the payment for the Products. If the amount of the advance received is less than the cost of the delivered Products, HV counts the entire amount of the advance against the payment for the already delivered Products, issues an invoice for the additional payment for the delivered Products, as well as an invoice for the advance for the next supply of Products to be delivered. If the amount of the advance received exceeds the value of the Products delivered, the advance fully covers the obligation to pay for the Products already delivered, and the remaining amount of the advance shall be treated as the advance payment for future deliveries in the same way.

The Parties agreed that all expenses that may arise during the transferring monetary funds to the Seller’s bank account are borne by the Buyer (Details of Charges OUR).

The Parties hereby agree and confirm that the price of the Product includes fee to be paid according to clause 4.1 of this Agreement.

- 2.9. The Buyer shall accept the Products in accordance with a clause 1 (a) of the Schedule 2.
- 2.10. The Parties hereby agree that the price of the Products as defined in clause 2.6. of this Agreement is in any event a net price of the Products and it does not include any applicable taxes, customs duties, expenses related to customs clearance of the Products, loading of the Products on transport, withdrawal of goods from the warehouse, its transportation or any other possible expenses that may occur due to the transportation of the Products to the Buyer. All such costs (to the extent applicable) shall be compensated by the Buyer within 5 Business Days from the date of receipt of the Seller's invoice, including reimbursement to the Seller of the expenses specified in clause 2.3 (b) under contracts made by the Seller on behalf of, at the expense and in the interests of the Buyer.

3. REGULATORY AFFAIRS AND QUALITY

- 3.1. The Seller shall issue authorizations in favor of the Buyer to represent the interests in front of the State Authorities on the Territory of Product if required in accordance with the applicable law.
- 3.2. The Seller shall supply the Products (manufactured by the Seller or a respective third party) in accordance with applicable law (including cGMP), Marketing Authorisation, all terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and the applicable Specifications.

4. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

- 4.1. The Seller hereby grants to the Buyer a non-exclusive, right to use the Seller's Trademarks to the extent it is necessary for the import and distribution of the Products in the Territory and for the Commercialization corresponding to such import and distribution. The Buyer is not entitled to transfer the right granted without the Seller's prior written consent. The Buyer shall pay to the Seller a fee for the right to use the Seller's Trademarks in the amount equal to 0.1% (zero point one percent) of the price per each Product supplied under this Agreement and is included in the price of the Product. The fee is considered to be paid to the Seller at the moment of receipt by the Seller of the purchase price as specified in clause 2.8 of this Agreement.
- 4.2. The same rules for the Seller's Trademarks shall be applied for the third parties authorized or contracted by the Buyer for the import and subsequent distribution of the Product within the Territory. The use of the Seller's Trademarks by such third parties is circumscribed to the same extent and through the same methods (or portion of them) as the Buyer is permitted to use by the Seller under this Agreement. Each such permission should be subject to consent of the Seller, and the Buyer shall maintain up-to-date list of the respective authorized or contracted parties.
- 4.3. The Buyer is entitled to examine all the information about the cases of counterfeit Products on the Territory. The Buyer shall collect and provide the Seller with all the data related to such cases and shall be liable for non-performance or improper performance of this obligation.

5. PHARMACOVIGILANCE

- 5.1. The Buyer shall, within one (1) Business Day or three (3) calendar days, whichever is shorter, from the date of receipt of notice or information concerning any Adverse Event relating to any Product and in accordance with applicable law of the Territory, notify the Seller of such Adverse Event. Such notice shall:
 - (a) be forwarded to the Seller by email to the designated point of contact ("DPOC") and
 - (b) include the name, address and telephone number of the person making the complaint or report of an Adverse Event, the Product(s) involved, the nature of the Adverse Event and such other information as Seller may reasonably require.

- 5.2. The Buyer shall cooperate fully with, and provide all reasonable and necessary information and assistance to the Seller in connection with submission of complete, accurate and timely responses to requests for additional information and collection of samples of each Product. The Buyer shall:
- (a) take all steps necessary to assist Seller in meeting any reporting obligations and other obligations under applicable law of the Territory relating to Product; and
 - (b) fulfill its reporting and other obligations under applicable law of the Territory relating to Product.
- 5.3. The Buyer shall be responsible for the collection, storage and assessment of the Adverse Events data.
- 5.4. In the event Buyer receives from any State Authority any communication relating to any Adverse Event, Buyer shall, within one (1) Business Day from the date of receipt of such communication, notify Seller of such communication by e-mail to the DPOC. The notice shall include, in addition to the communication from the State Authority, a written summary of any conversations between Buyer or its Representatives and the State Authority and any other information relating to such communication.
- 5.5. The Buyer shall, within thirty (30) days from the date of receipt of a request by the Seller, provide to the Seller a print-out or computer disk of each Adverse Event reported to or known by Buyer for the twelve (12) month period prior to the date of such request. The Buyer shall, within ten (10) days from the date of receipt of a request by the Seller, make available to Seller or its designee, for inspection and copying (at Seller's cost and expense), records of Buyer (including computer disks) relating to each Adverse Event. The obligation of Buyer to disclose to Seller records and information concerning any Adverse Event shall continue as long as Seller continues to market any Product.
- 5.6. The Marketing Authorization Holder shall have the ultimate obligation to make or file any report or otherwise make any disclosure, with respect to any Adverse Event, to the relevant State Authorities.
- 5.7. The Buyer is liable for any Adverse Events occurred within the Territory.

6. LIABILITY

- 6.1. The liability of the Seller for any action which is outside of its reasonable control, provided the Seller acts in good faith, is excluded.
- 6.2. Under no circumstances shall the liability of the Seller for the non-performance or improper performance of this Agreement exceed an amount equal to one hundred thousand (100,000) USD or 10% of the full price for the Committed Quantity, whichever is less.
- 6.3. In no instance, will the Seller be liable to the Buyer or any other person for indirect, consequential, remote losses such as but not limited to loss of opportunity, loss of revenue, loss of profit (i.e. income which would have been received by a person in the ordinary course of business if the right of such person had not been breached), loss imputed to time value of money, reputational issues etc.
- 6.4. For the sake of clarity, the Seller is not liable for the Products efficiency in any case.

7. SELLER'S IMMUNITY FROM LIABILITY

- 7.1. None of the Seller or any of its Connected Persons shall be subject to any liability under this Agreement or otherwise for any Loss suffered by the Buyer or any person whatsoever (including patients and their relatives) resulting from the use of the Product (including liability for any claims that may be made against the Seller by any third persons).
- 7.2. For the purpose of the Agreement herein:
- (a) “Connected Persons” means (in relation to a Party) the shareholders, officers, servants, employees, agents and advisers of that Party or any of its Affiliates;
 - (b) “Affiliates” means, in relation to any person, any other person that, directly or indirectly, control, are directly or indirectly controlled by or are under common direct or indirect control with that person, and “Affiliate” means any of them; for the purposes of this definition, “control” shall mean holding of more than 50% of the voting power in respect of, the right to appoint sole executive officer, to elect a majority of the members of the board of directors or management board or any other collegial management body, which under the applicable laws or constitutive documents of the relevant person has a similar authority, or the right to otherwise determine the principal conditions of the conduct of business of, a person and “controlled”, “control” and “controlling” shall be construed accordingly;
 - (c) “Loss” means all losses, damages liabilities, costs (including legal costs and experts’ and consultants’ fees), charges, expenses, actions, proceedings, claims and demands, punitive damages, loss of profit, loss of goodwill, whether actual or prospective, consequential loss, product liability or any other detrimental effect (including any Adverse Effect);
 - (d) “Adverse Effect” means any observation in humans, whether or not considered to be product-related, that is unfavorable and unintended and that occurs after any use of the Product. Included are events related to noxious reactions in humans after being exposed to the Product, violations of approved residue limits, potential environmental problems and transmission of any infectious agent via the Product, as well as any other detrimental reactions.

8. WHOLE AGREEMENT

- 8.1. This Agreement contains the whole agreement between the Parties relating to the subject matter of this Agreement at the date hereof to the exclusion of any terms implied by law which may be excluded by contract and supersedes any previous written or oral agreement between the Parties in relation to the matters dealt with in this Agreement.
- 8.2. Each of the Parties agrees and acknowledges that its only right and remedy in relation to any representation, warranty or undertaking made or given in connection with this Agreement shall be for breach of the terms of this Agreement and each of the Parties waives all other rights and remedies (including those in tort or arising under statute) in relation to any such representation, warranty or undertaking. Except for any liability in respect of a breach of this Agreement, no Party (or any of its Connected Persons) shall owe any duty of care or have any liability in tort or otherwise to the other Party (or its respective Connected Persons) in relation to this Agreement.
- 8.3. Any terms or conditions implied by law in any jurisdiction in relation to the Agreement or any action envisaged by it are excluded to the fullest extent permitted by law or, if incapable of exclusion, any right, or remedies in relation to them are irrevocably waived.

- 8.4. Any and all claims whatsoever (whether in contract, tort or otherwise) arising out of or in any way connected with or relating to this Agreement shall be brought exclusively by the Parties strictly in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, and not by or against any other persons or under any other documents.
- 8.5. Each Party agrees to the terms of this clause on its own behalf and as agent for each of its Connected Persons.

9. INDEMNITY

- 9.1. The Buyer (on its own behalf and as agent for each of its Connected Persons) agrees to fully indemnify and keep indemnified the Seller and all of its Connected Persons from and against any Losses suffered by any of them as a result of acts or omissions of
- (a) the Seller or any of its Connected Persons in breach of this Agreement, or
 - (b) any third person in connection with the subject matter of this Agreement or any use of the Product in the Territory by that or any other person whatsoever.

10. TERM AND TERMINATION

- 10.1. This Agreement shall enter into force on the date on which this Agreement is duly executed by the Parties as specified on the title page of this Agreement (the “Effective Date”).
- 10.2. This Agreement shall remain in full force and effect until the date which falls three (3) years after the Effective Date (the “Term of Validity”).

12. GOVERNING LAW AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- 12.1. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of England and Wales, excluding all applicable collision (international private) law provisions.
- 12.2. The Parties agree that the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods (CISG) does not apply to this Agreement and any of the Specifications.
- 12.3. Any dispute arising out of or in connection with this contract, including any question regarding its existence, validity or termination, shall be referred to and finally resolved by arbitration administered by the Singapore International Arbitration Centre ("SIAC") in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Singapore International Arbitration Centre ("SIAC Rules") for the time being in force, which rules are deemed to be incorporated by reference in this clause.
- 12.4. The arbitral tribunal shall consist of three arbitrators. The place of arbitration shall be Singapore. The arbitration shall be conducted in the English language. The arbitration award shall be final for the Parties.

13. FORCE MAJEURE

- 13.1. Both Parties shall be excused from the performance of their obligations under this Agreement to the extent that such performance is prevented by force majeure and the nonperforming Party promptly provides notice of the prevention to the other Party. Such excuse shall be continued so long as the condition constituting force majeure continues and the nonperforming Party takes reasonable efforts to remove the condition.
- 13.2. For purposes of this Agreement, "force majeure" shall mean any one or more conditions beyond the control of the affected Party, including, without limitation, earthquake, typhoon, flood, fire, war, civil commotion, terrorist act, labor strike or lock-out, epidemic, failure or default of public utilities or common carriers and/or any other unforeseen and unavoidable conditions which prevents either Party from performance of its obligations under this Agreement.

14. MISCELLANEOUS

- 14.1. Any information relating to this Agreement, including the fact of existence of this Agreement, the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the content of oral and written negotiations or correspondence, any other documents, statements relating to this Agreement and the information (including but not limited to the term and quantity of supply of the Product, the price of the Product, other conditions of the supply of the Product, and section "Definitions and Interpretations", all of the Articles and Schedules of this Agreement, any proprietary information and data of a financial, commercial or technical nature, know-how, scientific information, methods, processes, business plans, intellectual property rights which is not publicly available and is owned or controlled by the disclosing Party) received by any Party in connection with this Agreement shall be deemed confidential (the "Confidential Information") and must not be disclosed by either Party to any third parties without the prior written consent of the other Party, save for cases (i) of criminal prosecution of the Buyer for non-disclosure of the Confidential Information under applicable law and (ii) where such disclosure is required from the Seller in connection with the lawful requests from the competent state authorities or courts under applicable law (the "Permitted Disclosure"). In case of Permitted Disclosure by the Buyer, the Buyer shall notify the Seller on such disclosure (the "Notice of Disclosure") within one (1) Business Day from the date of such disclosure. The Notice of Disclosure shall contain the information regarding grounds for disclosure of the

Confidential Information, references to applicable laws and regulations, list of disclosed Confidential Information. In the event of breach of this clause 14.1 by the Buyer, the Buyer shall pay to the Seller for each event of the breach the following (the “Liquidated Damages”):

- (i) a compensation of the resulting losses of the Seller, or
 - (ii) a compensation in the amount of one million (1,000,000) USD,
- whichever is higher.

- 14.2. All costs and expenses in respect of any resulting negotiations and agreement, including without limitation, legal and accounting charges, shall be borne by the Party which incurs the same. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, each Party shall be responsible for its respective expenses, including payment of taxes, incurred in the course of exercising its rights and responsibilities under this Agreement.
- 14.3. All payments to be performed by one Party in favour of another Party (the Taxable Recipient) under this Agreement shall not include any withholding taxes imposed by the relevant tax legislation on such payment. If any of such withholding taxes is applicable, the Party, obliged to pay and withhold (Tax Agent), shall be required to gross up such payment to the extent of such taxes to ensure that the Taxable Recipient receives full amount stipulated by this Agreement.

In this case, the Taxable Recipient shall provide to the Tax Agent:

- (a) the certificate properly issued and authorized by the competent tax authority to prove that relevant double tax treaty is applicable to the income paid, and
- (b) the letter, signed by the Taxable Recipient, or other evidence to certify that the Taxable Recipient is the beneficial owner for such income.

After and if the tax is withheld, the Tax Agent, shall provide to the Taxable Recipient:

- (c) the letter (signed and stamped) with information about the amount of tax withheld and transferred to the budget, and
- (d) the confirmation of actual payment of such taxes to the budget, and
- (e) the certificate properly issued and authorized by the competent authority to prove that relevant double tax treaty is applicable to the income paid.

The letter and confirmation mentioned in subparagraphs (c) and (d) above shall be provided within the calendar quarter in which the payment was made, but in any case not later than 10 days from the end of such a quarter.

SCHEDULE 2

1. ACCEPTANCE. COMPLAINTS

a) When accepting supply of the Products, the Buyer will check that the number of packages / pallets received corresponds to the number specified in the waybills / consignment notes and shall immediately record any numerical discrepancy or obvious external damage or that the Products have not been maintained in accordance with the Seller's cold chain requirements in the waybills / consignment notes and by giving written notice to the Seller in accordance with this Schedule. Failure to do so will result in the Buyer as being deemed to accept the Products.

If any such claim is so notified and accepted by the Seller, the Seller's sole responsibility will be limited to replacing or supplying lacking quantities of Products in question and the Buyer will not be entitled to any other compensation whatsoever. The Seller will not be liable for any such claims howsoever caused not notified to the extent that the Seller, or any third party that becomes unable to recover any loss or damage as a result of such failure.

When accepting supply of the Products and in case of absence of objections in respect to the Products, the duly authorized representative of the Buyer shall sign the waybill(s) / consignment note(s) without reservations.

b) The Buyer shall not be entitled to withhold or defer the whole or any part of any payment due for the delivered Products of any alleged defect, dispute, cross-claim or lien, set-off or any other claim whatsoever against the Seller unless written notice has been given of the same in accordance with this Schedule and such claim is recognized in writing by the Seller and the Seller agrees to such retention in writing signed by its duly authorized representative.

c) The Buyer has no right to return the Products to the Seller unless otherwise agreed between the Parties in writing.

2. RECALL OF PRODUCTS

a) In the event of any batch recall, the Buyer agrees to cooperate promptly with the Seller in taking all necessary steps to remove the relevant batch from the market place at the Seller's cost. In order to facilitate any possible batch recall the Buyer shall maintain suitable records including at least associated batch numbers and all the quantities in respect of all sales together with appropriate details of its customers in question and all other information required pursuant to the laws of the Territory. If the Buyer is required by any government agency or regulatory body acting within its proper authority to initiate or undertake a batch recall, it must immediately provide the Seller with written notice of such requirement. The Buyer shall not initiate or undertake any batch recall without prior consultation with and the written agreement of the Seller as to the most appropriate method and procedures for implementing the batch recall. Without prejudice to the above, each of the Seller and the Buyer shall keep all relevant records and provide all necessary assistance to the other to ensure compliance with laws of the Territory in relation to the recall of any Products.

SCHEDULE 3

REQUIREMENTS FOR STORAGE AND TRANSPORTATION

1. STORAGE

- 1.1. The Products shall be stored in accordance with the storage conditions set out in the relevant instructions for use, regulatory documents and on the package of the Products.
- 1.2. The premises for storing the Products shall be designed in a way allowing the required storage conditions. The zones for storing the Products shall be labelled with the names of the Products and the temperature and humidity conditions for storing them.
- 1.3. The premises for storing the Products shall be equipped with an online system for controlling the temperature and humidity parameters. Such system shall have uninterruptable power supply.
- 1.4. The area of the premises used by the Parties for storing the Products shall correspond to the volume of the Products to be stored and shall be no less than 150 square meters.
- 1.5. The premises for storing the Products shall be mapped or examined for air flow distribution in compliance with the recommendations of the World Health Organisation (WHO).
- 1.6. Mapping shall be performed in the coldest and in the hottest periods. Mapping for coolers may be performed during any period once in three years. After the tests are carried out, the hot and the cold spots shall be determined in each zone for storing the Products. An instruction shall be devised for installing sensors (loggers) in the critical spots of each zone for storing the Products. Any areas where critical deviations are registered shall be considered unsuitable for storing the Products.
- 1.7. Temperature mapping for the premises for storing the Products shall be performed once in three years during the hot season and once in three years in the cold season, as well as whenever material changes are made to the structure of the premises or the temperature control equipment.
- 1.8. The Products shall be stored on shelves (in closets) or on dunnage racks (pallets). The Products may not be stored on the floor without a pallet. Pallets may be located on the floor in one row or on shelves in several tiers, depending on the height of the shelf. The pallets with the Products may not be located in several rows in height without using shelves.
- 1.9. The Products shall be appropriately stored in separate and expressly identified zones access to which is allowed only to staff authorised to have such access. Any system which replaces the physical separation of the storage zones (e.g. a computerised system), if it is used by any of the Parties, shall ensure an equivalent security level and be validated.
- 1.10. The validation and/or assessment shall be formalised in reports which summarise the results obtained as well as provide explanations of the deviations identified.

2. TRANSPORTATION

- 2.1. The Products shall be transported in accordance with the conditions which ensure that the Products maintain their identity and attributes. The temperature regime for transportation is based on the requirements of regulatory bodies, information on the package of the Products and the provisions of regulatory documents.
- 2.2. When preparing for the transportation of the Products, the Parties shall ensure that the remaining shelf lives of the Products supplied have been ratified.
- 2.3. A transportation vehicle shall bear special equipment that ensures that the required temperature regimes for storing the Products are maintained. For instance, a transportation vehicle shall be equipped with temperature controls which ensure the provision of data confirming that the temperature regime is being observed at all stages of the transportation of the Products.
- 2.4. The equipment used to register and control the temperature regime shall be classed as measuring devices intended for use in the sphere of statutory regulation aimed at ensuring the consistency of measurements.

- 2.5. All the data concerning the maintenance of the temperature regime during the transportation of the Products shall be kept for no less than the shelf life of the Products plus one year past the expiration date.
- 2.6. To transport the Products on pallets, if there is a risk of the Products being exposed to high temperatures, at least one temperature sensor shall be installed on each pallet with the Products; such sensor shall react to exposure to high temperatures. The sensor shall be installed at the upper directional angle.
